

Journal entry: Developing a character through flashback

Question	Findings
1. What could have been a major event in one character's past?
2. How could this event have affected the character?
3. Why does this event need to be told as part of the story?
4. Who are the other characters involved in this flashback?
5. What is the moment in your story when you will freeze the action and flash back to this event?
6. At what point will you freeze the action in the flashback to re-enter the main story?
7. What impact does the flashback have on the rest of the story?	